

the public through the cap and trade system makes businesses pull back on any new investments for the fear of the unknown costs they will face. A stable economy with no surprises looming in the future will give confidence to businesses, and they are the true economic engines of our country. Tax relief promises more capital in the hands of those who invest in the future.

At the time of the stimulus vote, Republicans wanted more funds put into highway construction and Army Corps projects, but that didn't happen. The President has acknowledged that jobs are a problem by holding a jobs summit just this last week. He knows that more than 15 million Americans are looking for work. Let's hope he chooses a new and better path.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until noon today.

Accordingly (at 10 o'clock and 41 minutes a.m.), the House stood in recess until noon.

□ 1200

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. LARSEN of Washington) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: The first touch of snow startled Washington as Your soft whisper of winter upon us, Lord. Not enough to stall the driving force in the Nation's Capital, it melts like political words on the air; yet penetrates the grounding of all future plans.

Lord, this thin white curtain fell on our scene, a seeming call for purification of intentions. Quite unsure if we are ready to be fully clothed with Your victory of total transformation, we beg for more time as if it were not already given freely.

Send us more gentle snow, Lord, if it will awaken within us the hidden child who accepts Your surprising sky with a quiet smile. Brighten our shortened days, Lord, that we may take delight again in Your creation and prepare to celebrate the approaching day of Your visitation, when You embraced all our limitations and kept loving us anyway. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Texas (Mr. SMITH) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. SMITH of Texas led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

HARVARD MED DEAN FAILS HEALTH CARE BILL

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Mr. Speaker, here is what Jeffrey Flier, dean of Harvard Medical School, has to say about the administration's health care bill: "... The people who favor the legislation are engaged in collective denial.

"Speeches and news reports can lead you to believe that proposed congressional legislation would tackle the problems of cost, access and quality. But that's not true.

"... There are no provisions to substantially control the growth of costs or raise the quality of care. So the overall effort will fail to qualify as reform.

"Whatever its shape, the final legislation that will emerge from Congress will markedly accelerate national health care spending rather than restrain it... The legislation would do little or nothing to improve quality or change health care's dysfunctional delivery system.

"Worse, currently proposed Federal legislation would undermine any potential for real innovation in insurance and the provision of care."

Dean Flier has good advice: Congress should start over and do it right.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will postpone further proceedings today on motions to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote or the yeas and nays are ordered, or on which the vote incurs objection under clause 6 of rule XX.

Record votes on postponed questions will be taken later.
